2015 Vermentino Colli di Luni Boboli

James Suckling 90 pts

Very attractive lemon cream and floral nose, which lead to quite a substantial and well-structured wine with a long and clean finish. With a bit more vibrancy, this would have been rated higher. Drink or hold.

2016 Vermentino Colli di Luni Pianacce

James Suckling 91 pts

This has a fresh and appealing style. Really refreshing pears and lemons in an elegant, punchy and vibrant style. Drink now.

2017 Rosato Gorgonia

Vinous 92 pts – Ian d'Agata

Medium pink. Herbs and flowers on the deep rich nose. Then more fruity in the mouth, with very good outstanding, aromatic inner-mouth perfume that lift rich, ripe and sweet flavors of red fruit complicated by orange peel. There's a clever use of r.s here but this has enough structure and acidity not to come across as simple and sweet. Lovely stuff: 100% Merlot grown at only 30 meters above sea level in the countryside of the beautiful commune of Sarzana on the Ligurian coast.
